Cathcart Says 'Tis Libel LIEUT. EVANS PUBLICLY REPRIMANDED

Sperry's Welcome Better Than Togo's

TOKIO, Japan, Oct. 19.—A banquet was given tonight by United States Ambassador O'Brien in honor of the visiting American Fleet. Admiral Sperry in responding to a toast spoke of the peaceful mission of the ships and the good-will of America.

The enthusiasm with which the Americans have been received on all sides exceeds the welcome given Admiral Togo after his return from victorious battle.

Evans Sentenced

YOKOHAMA, Japan, Oct. 19.—The findings of the court-martial before which Lieut. Evans was on trial, were made public today.

Evans is found guilty of disrespect to his superior and of leaving the deck while on duty. He is found not guilty of the charge of intoxication.

He is sentenced to loss of one hundred and fifty numbers and a public reprimand.

Arrest British Ship

BERLIN, Germany, Oct. 19.—An Austrian torpedo boat has arrested a British steamer in the Bay of Antifari, loaded with arms and ammunition for Montenegro.

Editor Roosevelt

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 19.—It is announced that President Roosevelt will become associate editor of the Outlook after March 4th.

FORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 19.—The battleship Maine arrived here today. The Alabama is off Sandy Hook.

Heavy Voltage Passes Through Expert's Body

Suffering intense pain from burns a 20,000 volt current, and the victim's received when he came into contact with a 20,000 volt electric current in the wireless station at Kahuku, and his nerves unstrung as the result of his experience, A. A. Isbell, expert of the wireless telegraph company, arrived here this morning for a short rest.

Isbell was making some adjustments on the wireless apparatus last Friday night when his watch fell into contact with one of the terminal points. There was a blinding flash, and Isbell was thrown heavily to the floor. The terminal was charged with 20,000 volt current, and the victim's received when he came into contact with a 20,000 volt electric current in the wireless station at Kahuku, and his nerves unstrung as the result of his experience, A. Says Jap's Assailant

Bodes Says Hayashi
Tried To Do
Murder

Awakened by the sound of a murderous blow dealt her husband as he lay sleeping, Mrs. R. Rudolph Bode, wife of the organizer of St. Andrew's Cathedral, saw the would-be murderer leave her bedroom, then return and deal her husband another blow across the head with some instrument resembling a club, felt fingers close about her throat, heard threats of murder, and then saw the assassin turn and flee in terror as a light was flashed on in the hall. It all happened at half past two o'clock Sunday morning at the Bode home in Maunaloa valley.

Bode now lies with a fractured skull at the Queen's Hospital, not yet out of danger but with a good chance of recovery barring unpleasant complications, while Hayashi, cook and yard boy employed by the Bodes, is under arrest, a charge of assault with intent to commit murder probably to soon be lodged against him.

Hit While Asleep.
The assailant struck Mr. Bode as he lay asleep. He was dazed by the blow, which awakened his wife, Mrs. Bode saw the man leaving the room, but, for some reason, possibly because she exclaimed involuntarily, he came back, dealing Bode another vicious blow with some weapon which looked

CATHCART WILL SPEAK FRIDAY

The Republican Executive Committee of the Central Committee this afternoon held a meeting, at which the plans for the Cathcart meeting at the Orpheum were changed, in that the date was set for next Friday evening. The names of the speakers have yet to be selected, as Lane will not be able to be present.

"The campaign manager suggests," said A. F. Judd, in speaking of the matter, "that the public suspend its judgment in reference to these allegations which are being made against Cathcart, until after he has been given an opportunity to reply."

JUDGE DOLE RENDERS FAMOUS DECISION

Judge Dole rendered his decision this morning in the famous case of the United States against the Haleakala Ranch Company which involves the law against the contribution by corporations to political campaign funds.

Judge Dole holds that the corporations of the Territory do not come within the scope of corporations organized by authority of any laws of Congress.

Also that the law of Congress against contributions by corporations does not apply to an election in a Territory where a Delegate to Congress is to be selected.

Also that the law is constitutional.

The Judge upholds the principal contention of the defendants. His decision means that the corporations may contribute to the campaign funds of local political parties, and that the corporations of the Territory did not, by reason of annexation, come under the head of corporations organized by authority of Congress.

The decision is a very long one and goes into all the questions involved exhaustively.

SEE PEARL HARBOR

The officers of the Pacific Fleet were this morning taken to Pearl Harbor in the Ingham accompanied by the members of the fleet entertainment committee. After being shown the various points of interest in and about the harbor, a luncheon was enjoyed at the Peninsula, whereupon the party left in the train for Wahiawa, where they viewed the pineapple fields. The party will return to Honolulu by the train this afternoon.

JACK TO MAUI

The executive committee of the Republican Central Committee this afternoon sent a wireless to A. L. C. Atkinson on Hawaii, instructing him to go to Maui to accompany Delegate Kanihale on his tour of that island. It is expected that he will go to Maui tomorrow.

Husband (after the theater): Well how do you like the piece? Wife: Very much. There's only one improbable thing in it. The second act takes place two years after the first, and they have the same domestic.

Chandler's Papers Are Set Aside

John S. Chandler lost his case before the Supreme Court, which handed down a decision at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The case was that of mandamus proceedings brought against Secretary Mott-Smith to compel him to receive the nomination of Chandler, who had gotten his name in too late.

This leaves George Fairchild as the only candidate for Senator from Kauai.

The following is the syllabus of the opinion of the Supreme Court, which disposes of the questions at issue:

Elections: time for filing nomination certificate.—The statute providing that nomination papers must be filed not less than thirty days before the day of election, the fact that the thirtieth day before fell on Sunday does not entitle the candidate to file the same on the following Monday.

Elections: validity of statute prescribing time for filing nomination certificate.—L. L. Sec. 31, proscribing the time within which nomination certificates must be filed, is not in conflict with the Organic Act, and is valid.

HUTCHINSON AND PAAUHAU DIVIDENDS

Cable advices received this morning announce that the directors of the Hutchinson and Paaupuu plantations have increased their dividends for the month of November from fifteen cents per share to twenty cents.

Cathcart Sues For $20,000

John W. Cathcart this morning filed a libel suit for $20,000, damages against the Hawaiian Gazette Company, Ltd., and Walter G. Smith and it is understood that he will file a suit each day as the libellous attacks on him continue. A. G. M. Robertson and F. W. Milverton are his attorneys.

The papers in the libel set forth that Cathcart since the year 1883 has been an attorney and counselor at law, and since the year 1898 has practiced his profession of attorney and counselor at law in the Hawaiian Islands, being entitled since said year 1898 to practice in all the courts of said islands. That from the month of June, 1900, to the month of February, 1903, plaintiff was Deputy Attorney General of the Territory of Hawaii, and since the month of January, 1906, has been and now is the duly elected, qualified and acting County Attorney of the County of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii.

That on the 19th day of September, A. D. 1908, plaintiff was duly and regularly nominated at the Republican County Convention for the office of City and County Attorney of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, for the two years commencing January 4th, 1909. That plaintiff thereafter accepted such nomination and duly

Goo Case Put Up Job, Thinks W. R. Castle

While the Advertiser has been publishing live on the land until their rating W. R. Castle as one of its death, and that she should contribute main witnesses against Cathcart, that one to their support from week to gentleman is much disgusted at the week, which she did.

use which has been made of his name in this connection, and when to get the land for nothing, I bet it came to discussing the character of the "Tiser's" chief witness, Goo Wan Hoy, Castle spoke of him in a way which ought to have made his ears tingle.

"I don't see why the Advertiser jugged me into the matter," said Castle this noon. "It is done in such a way as to make it look as if I were one of the chief instigators of this charge. As a matter of fact, I always regarded this case, which this Chinaman backed against Melana Davis, who was my client, as a put-up job. The facts were simply these: that the two old people, who were the plaintiffs, conveyed a piece of land to this woman, who was their niece, for one dollar, and for the further consideration that they
